Overview

Hermann Marais is an associate in the Corporate department of our Johannesburg office, and a member of the Tax practice.

He works closely with his team in respect of tax disputes, corporate restructuring work, general tax queries and tax due diligences. His qualifications in both the financial and law fields provide him with an edge in respect of financial and legal tax compliance.

He holds BAcc and LLB degrees from the University of Stellenbosch and is busy studying towards his Masters in Tax Law at the University of the Witwatersrand.
