Overview

Lufuno Shinwana is an associate in our Johannesburg office and a member of the Competition Practice.

He has acted in a variety of competition matters across numerous industries, representing both local and international clients. Lufuno specialises in merger control and anti-competitive practices in South Africa and other African jurisdictions, in particular, drafting merger notifications, advising clients on prohibited practices and cartel investigations, competition compliance training, and advising on the notifiability of transactions with multi-jurisdictional impact.

Lufuno has assisted with the representation of clients in contentious competition matters before the Competition Tribunal of South Africa.

Lufuno has a LLB degree from the University of Pretoria and a LLM degree from Cornell University.
