Overview

Tim Gordon-Grant is the senior litigation partner in our Johannesburg office Litigation Practice.

He provides strategic advice in liability situations, predominantly in the fields of corporate, commercial, banking, insurance and insolvency law and acts for various large corporate clients on significant matters, many of which involve high-profile public hearings and arbitrations. He and his team conduct litigation and arbitration matters. He also acts as a commercial mediator.

He has BA and LLB degrees from the University of the Witwatersrand and is a CEDR qualified mediator.

Experience

- He has successfully run numerous court cases and arbitrations on behalf of major corporate clients of Bowmans.
 - He has acted as mediator in a number of successful commercial mediations, more notably a recent settlement reached between Alexander Forbes and Price Forbes.
 - He is currently the lead lawyer for litigation and arbitration matters valued, in aggregate, in excess of R20 billion.
 - He recently led the team which drafted and finalised the settlement of R1.2 billion of all the Gautrain arbitration and litigation disputes.
 - He is frequently called upon to advise boards of companies and, more recently, the board of the Discovery Medical Scheme.
 - He represents the largest gas supply company listed on the JSE
