Leaply will send you an email notification when your application is being viewed and show you where your application is in the assessment process

Will I need to attend a vacation work programme for me to be signed for articles?

No. We hold vacation work programmes for you, as a potential candidate attorney, to assess whether the culture at our firm is the one you would like to be part of. We hold selection day programmes for signing candidates for articles.

Is having a Masters degree in law advantageous to my application?

A masters degree is good for your own development, but it will not give you any advantage over other candidates who do not have masters degrees.

Does it matter whether I choose to complete a BA or B.Com before my law degree?

Not at all. Your choice of an undergraduate qualification is up to you. We offer articles to candidates who have obtained LLB qualifications.

How many rotations is a Bowmans candidate attorney exposed to?

Four. We do this so that our candidate attorneys can become a well-rounded attorneys by the end of their articles.

What is a minimum requirement to apply at Bowmans?

Our minimum requirement in terms of marks is 65% average.

Can foreign nationals get articles if they apply?

Foreign nationals can apply and will be given articles if they are the selected, provided they have permanent residence status and work permits.

Is studying further encouraged once you have started as a candidate attorney?

Yes, we encourage growth. We are flexible in allowing our candidate attorneys to pause their articles to study further and then resume them once their additional studies are complete.
